Dear Adrian:

Thank you for responding to your Notice of Noncompliance dated April 11, 2007. We have completed our evaluation of your response and are pleased to announce that your operation is now certifiable as organic in accordance with applicable standards and statutes.

Responses for any items requiring corrective action prior to your next annual monitoring date should be submitted with next year's application for continuation of certification.

Attached we are forwarding the certificates and/or letters of compliance which apply to your operation.

Certification remains valid as long as the original terms and conditions continue to be met or until surrendered, suspended or revoked. As a certified operator you must inform QAI of any changes, modifications or amendments to your operation that occur during the year. In addition, you must annually update your organic system plan and undergo an on-site inspection to be conducted on or about January 6, 2008 your annual monitoring date.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Sincerely,

Senior Account Coordinator
